

Buying Good Food is a SNAP!

- SNAP (formerly the Food Stamp Program) is the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program designed to help Montanans afford healthy food.
- SNAP participation also helps your local economy by bringing federal money directly into your community.
- When you receive SNAP benefits, your children are eligible for free school meals.
(Just let your school know that you participate in SNAP)

NEW: For many applicants, INCOME LIMITS HAVE GONE UP.

NEW: For many applicants, there is NO MORE ASSET LIMIT.

NEW* SNAP Income Limits

(Effective Sept. 1, 2010 through Sept. 30, 2011)

Household Size	Gross Monthly Income
1	$1,806
2	$2,430
3	$3,052

*Add $624 for each additional household member.

PLEASE NOTE: Meeting the Gross Income Limit does not guarantee you will qualify for benefits. Applicants also need to meet a Net Income Limit in order to qualify, which is calculated by a case worker. Applicants can receive several deductions for living expenses to help them meet the Net Income Limit.

Some households with a previously disqualified member will need to meet a lower Gross Income Limit.

Apply at any Office of Public Assistance:

- Pick-up an application or request one by mail
- Drop off, mail, or fax-in your application
- Call to see if you qualify for a phone interview
- Have another adult apply on your behalf
